

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, Oct. 6.
LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

It's a good time to start the two-horse plows turning land for the cover crops.

The rains did not descend until practically all of the fodder and hay had been housed.

Miss Grace Thomas is now acting as saleslady at the popular store of Mr. Israel Mukashy.

Mrs. L. T. May united with the Baptist church at the close of the sermon Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Williams of the Cleora-Gilgal section spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holston.

Mrs. Ida F. Sheppard has returned from a visit of a month to her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Rogers at Blenheim.

Cotton seed, cotton seed, cotton seed—we have never seen the like of cotton seed before that are being hauled to Edgefield.

Attention is directed to the new advertisements of Rives Bros., Rubenstein, J. W. Peak and Jas. R. and Bettis Cantelou.

No, no, you need not be unduly concerned about a large cotton crop next year. There'll not be seed enough left to plant a large acreage.

J. H. Cantelou, master in equity, advertises a number of valuable tracts of land for sale the first Monday in November. Read these sales carefully.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maner Lawton have come to make their home permanently with Misses Sophie and Marie Abney and Mrs. Gladys Calhoun.

Welcome, thrice welcome, to Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mellichamp, who moved yesterday into the brick cottage near the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Ellie Brooks Jones has returned to her home in Columbia after spending several months very pleasantly with her sister, Mrs. F. F. Moseley.

Mr. W. S. G. Heath has just completed a large modern barn for Mrs. Hattie Adams and is now adding two additional rooms to her handsome residence.

The first autumn meeting of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will be held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Padgett Tuesday afternoon, October 12, at 4 o'clock.

Miss Florence Peak who is teaching at Heath Springs came home to attend the marriage of her sister, Miss Hortense Peak, last Thursday, returning to her school Saturday.

Mr. W. H. Turner is a very busy man. He divides his time between his store here and his two Greenwood stores. He spent Monday in Edgefield looking after the Corner Store.

The petit jury for the second week of court is published this week. In order to clear the calendar of the court of common pleas it will be necessary to draw a jury for k.

Morning and afternoon sessions are to be held next Sunday at Edgefield Methodist church. Hours 11:15 and 4:15. Morning subject, "Faith." Afternoon, "The widening sovereignty of Christ."

"I want to tell you about the American Girls. They have been declared unanimously the best company ever on a course here in Gallatin."—Fred Vollmer, Secretary Y. M. C. A., Gallatin, Mo.

For Sale Or Rent—My nine room house in north Edgefield, eight acres of land, pasture, good well and spring, servant house and store house on the premises. Terms easy, apply to W. C. Jackson.

Miss Nell Jones has been elected president of her class, the junior class at Converse college. This is not only a distinct honor but it also shows that Miss Nell is making a splendid record at college.

"The American Girls who appeared here some time ago were very fine in every particular. There was not a dull moment during the entire program. I must say that they were simply great. We would like to have them make a return engagement."—W. K. Russell, Sec., Oneida, Kans.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of W. F. Rush & Company of Plum Branch. This popular firm has the agency for automobiles for that portion of the county west of the Martin Town road.

Court will convene next Monday. While you are in town on other business call at The Advertiser office and pay the amount you are in arrears on subscription. The label on your paper will show how your subscription stands.

We have seen more new wagons during the past 10 days than we saw during the 10 months previous to that time. The purchasing of new vehicles indicates that the good-old-before-the-war times are rapidly coming back.

The friends of Miss Lethie Jackson welcome her back to Edgefield. This popular young lady of the Philippi section, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Jackson, is again at her post in the office of Clerk of Court W. B. Cogburn.

"The American Girls gave us as fine a quality of entertainment on October 16 as was ever given in Grant City. No number ever gave more general satisfaction than this one. Everybody was delighted."—R. M. Tatum, Presbyterian church, Gallatin, Mo.

The young men who compose the Edgefield Cotillion club gave a dance in the opera house last night in honor of Miss Raven Simkins who will become the bride of Mr. Clinton T. Graydon this evening. A large number of out-of-town visitors attended the dance.

Mrs. Mamie Tillman and Mrs. Fanniss Tompkins left Sunday morning on their journey across the continent to attend the national convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which will be in session in Seattle, Wash., from the 9th to the 16th of October. From Seattle they will attend the Panama exposition in San Francisco. They will return through the central west, stopping at many places of interest, reaching Edgefield about the middle of November.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The subject of Scientific Temperance Instruction was studied at the monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. which was very delightfully entertained at the hospitable home of Mrs. J. W. Thurmond.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Rainsford, Mrs. J. W. Peak conducting the devotions.

A very appropriate and pleasing feature of the afternoon was a recitation by Jeanette Timmons, entitled "My body is a temple." This was followed by a humorous, but truthful and forceful poem by Allen Edwards called "The c'n cob pipe." "Miss Georgia Spofford's school," was a story leaflet demonstrating the influence and opportunity of the teachers. This was effectively read by Mrs. Penleton Jones.

A vocal solo was given by Miss Miriam Norris from the Temperance Songster which was full of splendid appeal and was enjoyed and applauded.

A temperance quiz giving in brief form the history of the S. T. I. department was conducted by Mrs. Rainsford a number of ladies replying. The state law requiring the instruction in our public schools relating to the teaching of the evils of alcohol, tobacco and other narcotic poisons was read.

At the close of the program a letter was read from Pineville, N. C., recommending Mrs. Kirkland as a member of the Edgefield W. C. T. U. and Mrs. Walton Fuller and Miss Mamie Sill were received as members.

Arrangements were made for a Halloween party for the High and graded school faculty in about three week's time, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mims.

The model members contest was begun, and the first roll call was very encouraging. This contest will continue for four months closing in a reception and special honors to the most model member.

The hostess was very thoughtful in furnishing white ribbons to every guest. Prayer was made for our delegates to the national convention in Seattle, Mrs. Tillman and Mrs. Tompkins at this writing, enjoying the companionship of hundreds of white ribbon comrades on the white ribbon special from Chicago.

A delightful and elaborate salad course and iced tea were served. A large number were in attendance and welcomed visitors. The November meeting will be held with Mrs. W. C. Tompkins.

Do you need a typewriter? The Advertiser is offering a great bargain in Oliver typewriters. Nothing better on the market.

den colored flowers from the Mary Ann Buie chapter. Mr. Glaxton is a veteran and Mrs. Clark having charge of the flower department remembered him. An elegant wedding feast, was served during the day.

It was with much interest and enthusiasm that the members of the Emily Geiger chapter met to hold the first meeting, this being in the home of Mrs. J. L. Walker. The year books were ready for the members and it is a pleasure to contemplate what it offers in the way of study for the coming year. The meeting was called to order by the regent, Mrs. M. T. Turner who pleasantly greeted the chapter and asked for the hearty co-operation of all for to this end would mean the success of the organization. The chapter is in a good financial condition having in treasury $37.54. In the "buy-a-foot" movement of the plot at the rear of continental hall, Washington, D. C., the chapter decided to purchase one foot $1.25. Two-thirds of the amount in the treasury was voted to be set aside as a nucleus of the fund which will place a marker at the grave of Emily Geiger, which is near Lexington. Delegates to the state conference in Greenville, November 18, are Mrs. M. T. Turner 1st delegate, Mrs. W. F. Scott 2nd delegate, alternate Mrs. J. L. Walker. Mrs. C. P. Corn was cordially welcomed into the chapter. The report of the year book committee was made by Mrs. James White and she also had charge of the literary hour. Current events, Mrs. J. L. Walker. "The skirmish at Concord," Mrs. M. T. Turner; "The affair at Lexington," Mrs. W. F. Scott; vocal solo, Mrs. C. P. Corn; chorus, chapter. The hostess served a most delightful salad course and as the guests passed out into the hallway, hot chocolate and marshmallows were served. The table was beautiful in bowls of nasturtiums the chapter flower which means patriotism. Flags and vases of red roses were the other decorations.

On the fourth Sunday evening in October, a sacred concert will be held at the Baptist church. The full orchestra will assist; Prof. John Waters at the organ, and Mr. Fred L. Parker, Jr., at the piano. The choir is arranging for the anthems, duets, etc.

Miss Lizzie Harris died on Saturday morning in the home of Maj. and Mrs. F. M. Warren, being in her eighty-fourth year. She had lived a long and useful life, the last few years her strength failing rapidly, so the end was not unexpected. In early girlhood being left an orphan, Col. Jackson Tompkins took her into his home and during all these years she has always been just as one of the family, and "Ish" as she was called was loved as devotedly by all as if there had been ties of blood. She loved them equally as well and was always ready to devote strength and time in their interests. During her last days everything was done for her comfort. She was an earnest christian, being a member of the Baptist church, and in her modest way did many beautiful acts of kindness, during her days of activity. The burial was at Willow Brook cemetery, Edgefield, on Sunday morning.

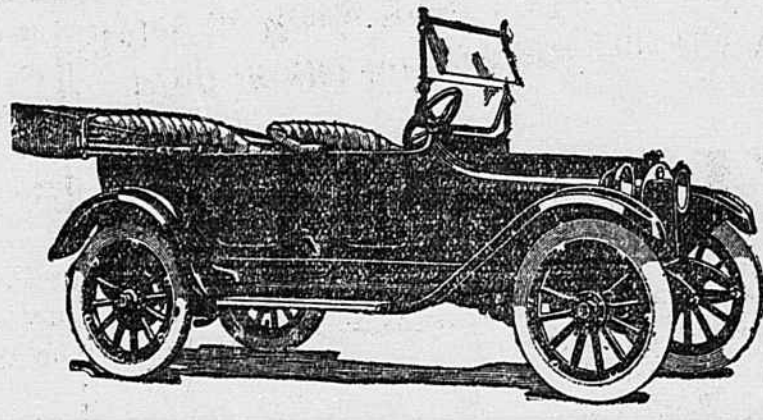

On Saturday afternoon the first meeting of the Apollo music club was held, the meeting being with Mrs. H. W. Crouch and a full and very pleasant meeting was held in this hospitable home. The year books were ready, the subject for the year being "American and Polish composers," and the members contemplate the study with pleasant anticipation. Owing to the fact that Mrs. James Cullum the president, would no longer reside here, Mrs. Mims Walker vice-president, was elected president and Miss Gladys Sawyer vice-president. The flower committee is eastern part of town, Miss Gertrude Strother, central Miss Clara Sawyer, western Miss Zena Payne. Miss Gladys Sawyer led during study hour and a splendid paper, "What is American music?" was read by Mrs. James White. Comments on national and patriotic songs were given by Miss Clara Sawyer and a national and patriotic song was had. "Dixie," piano duet, Mrs. Lucian Maxwell, Miss Gladys Sawyer. The hostess served a tempting course of ices and cake.

Agents For Dodge Cars.

In this issue will be found an advertisement of Messrs. Jas. R. and Bettis Cantelou announcing that they have the agency for Edgefield county for Dodge automobiles. While the Dodge is one of the newest cars on the market, yet it is rapidly coming to the front as one of the most popular cars, which en-
